CHOOSE BETWEEN ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

Adjectives are words which describe nouns / pronouns. They usually come before the nouns they modify. Mostly they answer the question: What Kind? How many? Which one? Adverbs add something to the meaning of verbs, adjectives or other adverbs. They describe how/ when/ where the action happens.

Read the sentences given below. Draw a line under each adjective and circle around every adverb.

Example:

The funny joker laughed happily.

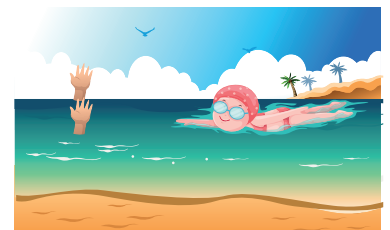

1) Will you forever be my best friend?

2) Ruth greedily swallowed the sweet candy.

3) The young boy bravely saved the drowning woman.

4) The poor woman cried sadly for food.
