

NAME _____ DATE _____

CHOOSE BETWEEN ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

Adjectives are words which describe nouns / pronouns. They usually come before the nouns they modify. Mostly they answer the question: What Kind? How many? Which one? Adverbs add something to the meaning of verbs, adjectives or other adverbs. They describe how/ when/ where the action happens.

Use the words from the word box and fill in the blanks of the following sentences. Write whether the words are adjectives or adverbs in the parenthesis given for each sentence.

Examples:

Help Box:

lovely, late

a) They arrived late to the party. (Adverb)

b) It is a lovely flower. (Adjective)

Help Box:

very, loud, hard

1) Nancy speaks in a _____ voice. ()

2) Our teacher works _____ all day. ()

3) Harry bought a _____ sweet pudding from the bakery. ()

