APOSTROPHE (POSSESSIVE NOUNS)

Apostrophe (') with 's' is used to express possession when added to nouns.
Apostrophe is added after plurals to show their possession.

Underline the word that expresses possession with apostrophe and add apostrophe to show possession.

Examples:

i) My sisters birthday has been celebrated grandly.

Answer: _My sister's birthday has been celebrated grandly_ .

----

ii) All girls have brown teddy bears.

Answer: _All girls' have brown teddy bears_ .

----

1) The elephants trunk is long.

Answer: _____.

----

2) Our family went to Justins home for lunch.

Answer: _____.

----

3) Stephens computer is not working.
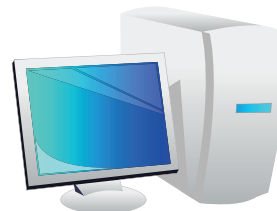

Answer: _____.

----

4) Titanics deck was very large.

Answer: _____.

EDUBUZZ KIDS