

NAME _____

DATE _____

CAPITALIZATION

When we write the first letter of a word as upper case, it is called capitalization. Personal pronoun 'I' should always be written in capital letters. The first letter of every sentence should be capitalized. Exclamation like 'O, Oh, Ah, Aha, Eh' etc... must be capitalized. The first letter of all proper nouns i.e. the names of persons, places, things, names of animals etc... The titles of books, newspapers, films, and the days of a week, months, roads, institutions, organizations, religions, mountains, rivers, oceans, states races, ships, festivals, special days, firms, salutations and god should be capitalized. The first letter of a word in a sentence and first word within quotation marks should be capitalized. All the adjectives derived from proper nouns have to be capitalized.

Circle the letter that has to be capitalized.

Example:

i) we live in a small village.

1) my friend loves to watch a cartoon show.

2) our class greeted the school principal.

3) the moon looks like a golden ball in the sky.

