

NAME _____ DATE _____

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice.
It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions.
It is closed with a full stop (.)

Tick (✓) the imperative sentence and cross (X) the other.

1. Why don't you do your home work promptly? []

Do your homes work with our any delay. []

2. He is about to choose his uniform. []

Choose your uniform immediately. []

3. Do you know the answer? []

Please raise your hand, if you know the answer. []

4. The boys are talking more. []

Stop talking boys. []