

NAME _____

DATE _____

IMPERATIVE SENTENCES

An imperative sentence gives an order, request or advice.
It is used to ask people to do things or to give suggestions.
It is closed with a full stop (.)

Tick (✓) the imperative sentence and cross (X) the other.

1. John, Hurry up otherwise you will miss the train. []

John is going to miss the train. []

2. Please bring me a glass of water. []

Do you want a glass of water? []

3. How can you go home? []

Let me go home. []

4. Lend me your book please. []

She is ready to give me her book. []

