CORRECT USE OF VERBS

Some verbs are constantly misused by children. "There is cookies.", is an example for misuse of verb. It should be corrected as "There are cookies.", since cookies is plural. The short form of "there is" 'is there's. But we don't have any short form for "there are".

Choose the correct verb forms for the following and write them on the blanks given.

Example:

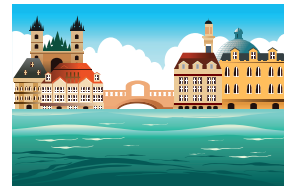

There are (is/are) balloons.

1. There ____ (are/is) no cell phones in my box.

2. There ____ (are/is) several houses on the river bank.

3. There ____ (are/is) a big elephant in the circus.

4. There ____ (are/is) a brown dog running after sheep.
